Numb. 7303

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 1. to Tuesday June 4. 1734

Whitehall, June 3.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders, at a General Aſſizes held the 4th Day of April, 1734, for the County of Carlow, in Ireland, before the Honourable Sir John St. Leger, and John Wainwright, Eſq; Barons of your Majeſty's Court of Exchequer.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of her Highneſs the Princeſs Royal to his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

The Care of his late Majeſty King William (of ever glorious Memory) upon his Acceſſion to the Throne, to ſecure the Succeſſion to your Majeſty's illuſtrious Family, promiſed all thoſe Bleſſings which we already have, and daily receive from your wiſe and prudent Government: But this Union confirms us in an Aſſurance of your Royal Intention of perpetually preſerving the Proteſtant Religion, and entirely extirpating the leaſt Appearance of arbitrary Power.

As the Diſpoſal of her Highneſs has been thus ſucceſsful, may that of the reſt of your Royal Family be equally ſo, and thereby an Alliance be had as inviolably to fix your Intereſt and Power Abroad, as your Wiſdom and Conduct have already eſtabliſhed you in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects at Home.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, amidſt the repeated Congratulations of your People, humbly beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty the Greatneſs of our Joy, on the happy Concluſion of the late Marriage of her Highneſs the Princeſs Royal to his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

Your Majeſty has thereby ſhewn, that in all your Deliberations, for the Good of your People, your Care for the Proteſtant Religion and Intereſt, holds the firſt and principal Place in your Royal Mind and Thoughts; the Strengthning of which, by this happy Alliance, muſt obtain to your Majeſty the ſincere Affections and grateful Thanks of all Well-wiſhers to the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment of our Religion and Liberties.

The Princeſs Royal's moſt excellent natural Endowments, adorned and embelliſhed by the Example and Inſtructions of our moſt pious and vertuous Queen, have rendered her an Object deſerving of the greateſt Monarch: But your Majeſty has in Juſtice beſtowed her on a Prince the moſt worthy, a Prince moſt acceptable to your People, and who, by his illuſtrious Deſcent, brings into our Minds a grateful Remembrance of your Majeſty's Predeceſſor, King William the Third of glorious Memory, to whom your Majeſty's Subjects of this Kingdom of Ireland are more eſpecially indebted for the moſt invaluable Bleſſings of our Religion and Liberties, reſcued by him from the imminent Danger of Popery and Arbitrary Power.

May Heaven give a Bleſſing to this auſpicious Match, and reward the ſame with a numerous and glorious Offspring, to the Comfort of your Majeſty and the further Security of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty's Houſe and Line; and that your Majeſty and your Poſterity may for endleſs Generations govern theſe Realms, and reign over a free and contented People, are our hearty Prayers and Wiſhes.

Stockholm, May 22, O. S. After the uſual Ceremonies, the Nobility proceeded the 17th to the Choice of a Marſhall, which fell upon Count Charles Emilius Lewenhaupt. This Morning his Swediſh Majeſty in his Robes, the Senators in their Habits, and the four Orders, went to hear Divine Service in the great Church, and from thence proceeded to the Hall in the Palace; when the King being ſeated on his Throne, the Diet was opened with the uſual Ceremony, to which all the Foreign Miniſters were according to Cuſtom invited.

Hambourg June 4, N. S. The King of Denmark, who is expected at Altona on the 12th, will probably paſs the Whitſon-Week in this Neighbourhood. By Letters from the Ruſſian Camp before Dantzick of the 27th of laſt Month, we have an Account, that the French Troops lately debarked at Wechſelmunde, having attacked a ſmall Fort occupied by the Muſcovites, were repulſed with the Loſs of many Soldiers; that their Commander was killed in the Action, who had the Order of St. Louis, which the Muſcovites having taken off and delivered to Feldt Marſhal Munich, he had ſent it in Triumph to the Czarina; that during the Ceſſation of Hoſtilities between the Ruſſians and the City of Dantzick, which laſted 48 Hours, the King of Pruſſia's Miniſters, Meſſieurs Brandt and Grumkow, went into the Town, and that at the Expiration of the Truce, the Magiſtrates of Dantzick wrote a Letter to Feldt Marſhal Munich in a Stile not Satisfactory, whereupon the Hoſtilities recommenced; but it is believed they will not be carried on with great Vigour, becauſe it is certain that both the Muſcovites and Saxons have but a very ſmall Quantity of Ammunition, and are reduced to great Extremities for want of Proviſions. The French have beſieged Philipſbourg; and Prince Eugene remains at Hailbron expecting the Arrival of the Auxiliary Troops.

Hambourg, June 8, N. S. Laſt Night an Officer paſſed privately through this Place, coming from Wechſelmunde, and going to Paris, with the News, that the French had not ſucceeded in their Attempt to force the Ruſſian Retrenchments, but had been repulſed with the Loſs of about 500 Men; and that Co